On the following pages you will find a district map and a street directory that lists the streets and corresponding schools in the West Irondequoit Central School District.

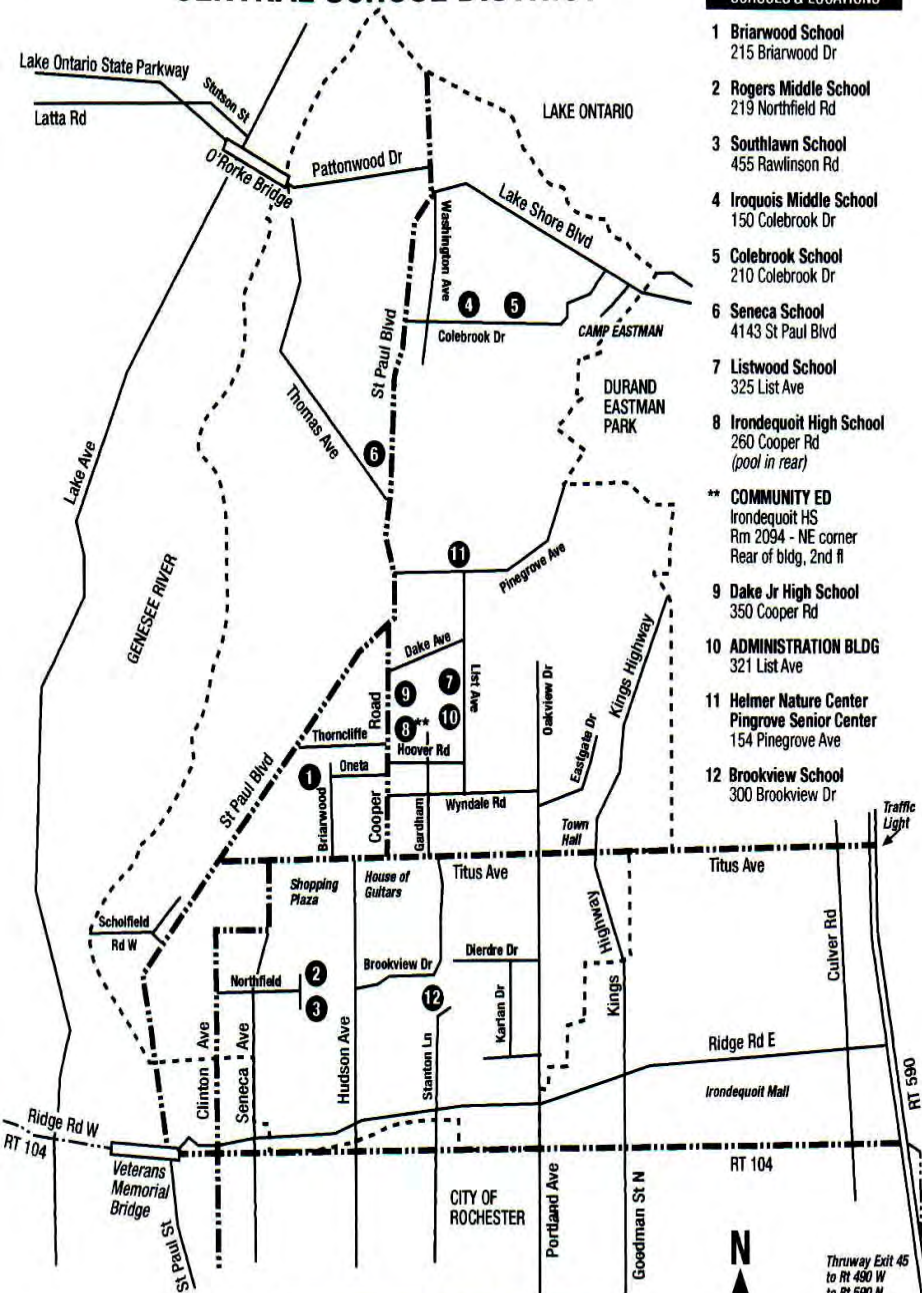

To attend school in West Irondequoit, students must reside within the district boundaries. There are six K-3 neighborhood schools and two 4-6 schools. K – 6 students are usually assigned to a school according to the street on which they reside. However, additional circumstances may require a student to attend a school other than the one assigned to their street (e.g., enrollment levels, educational needs). In the street directory, the columns list the street names and which schools are assigned to each street.

All students in grades 7-8 attend Dake Junior High School and all students in grades 9-12 attend Irondequoit High School.
